8.	Description of the Activity	May 28th is Menstrual Hygiene Day to create awareness and to highlight the importance of good menstrual hygiene management at a global level. It is an occasion for publicizing information in the media and mass. Public information campaigns can help to engage decision-makers in policy dialogue. Womens' choices of menstrual hygiene materials are often limited by the costs, availability and social norms. Adequate sanitation facilities and access to feminine hygiene products are one part of the solution. Creating a culture that welcomes discussion and makes adequate education for women, girls and society as a whole is of equal importance. Research has found that not having access to menstrual hygiene management products
